

CHARGES CALIFORNIA CHAIRMAN WITH DISLOYALTY TO HUGHES

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—Charges of disloyalty to Charles Evans Hughes, republican candidate for president, were preferred tonight against Francis V. Keessling, chairman of the state republican central committee, by Chester S. Rowell of Fresno, California, a member of the national republican campaign committee, in a telegram sent by Rowell to William R. Wilcox, chairman of the national campaign committee.

The charges originated in connection with the coming visit of Candidate Hughes. Arrangements for all the Hughes meetings in California were placed in the hands of Keessling and a difference of opinion arose with the suggestion that Governor Hiram W. Johnson, who is also a candidate for the republican nomination for senator, should preside.

Keessling, backed by William H. Crocker, national committeeman, insisted that the Hughes campaign in California was not a campaign for the nomination of the national committee, Rowell, without insisting on Johnson as presiding officer, did not see it in that light. Rowell wanted progressive representation of the platform, Keessling had his own ideas of that subject and Rowell's message to Wilcox was the outcome.

Rowell's telegram to Wilcox said in part:

"Have made every effort to avoid friction during Hughes' visit, as you requested, but regret to announce total failure. Made to Crocker and State Chairman Keessling proposition that republicans and progressives cooperate in arranging Hughes' meetings, by appointment of a committee on which both would be equally represented."

"Keessling replied, Crocker assented, that Hughes' campaign in California was not within the jurisdiction of the national campaign committee, and neither Crocker nor I were in any authority that it was exclusively for the state republican committee, and that he would not consent to any arrangement that would recognize the progressive organization."

"He added that the republicans of California would not support Hughes if Hughes did not act concerning California which they would consider as a surrender to the progressives, such as, for instance, his course already taken in Illinois regarding recognition of Jukes, and some of his acts nationally."

"He says the California republicans believe in partisanship and would rather vote a partisan democratic ticket than a republican ticket which is not partisan."

"If Hughes countenances effort to make the republican party progressive, the California republicans will vote the democratic ticket."

"On my responsibility as member of the national campaign committee and with sense of the seriousness of the state, I hereby charge that Republican State Chairman Keessling, and those who follow him, are in the hands of those who are making arrangements for Hughes' meetings in California have been placed, is disloyal to Hughes and is arranging for local financial advantage for the success of the national ticket."

Keessling gave the republican central committee's side of the controversy. In an open letter, addressed to Rowell and given to the press.

"You demand," said Keessling's letter, "to know whether the Hughes meetings to be held in this state should be what you chose to be 'inclusive' or 'exclusive' in their character. You base this request on authority which you claim to be vested in you by reason of your having been named a progressive representative of the republican national campaign committee."

"Your only suggestion had to do with the selection of those to preside at the meetings and you very first suggestion was clearly not in the spirit of fairness with which Mr. Crocker met you, but indicated the real purpose sought to be achieved by your desire for 'co-operation' as you term it. You suggested that Mr. Johnson be named to preside at the San Francisco meeting and that Mr. Booth, republican candidate for United States senator, preside at the Los Angeles meeting. Our desire has been not to embroil the national contest with the local one."

The letter continues with the statement that the progressive organization was an issue local to California

QUARANTINE IS MADE MORE RIGID

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Further spread of the epidemic of infantile paralysis in Greater New York and the heat wave which has gripped the city caused the health department today to tighten its quarantine regulations and to adopt measures seeking vigilance on the part of those responsible for the detection of the disease.

District health officials were instructed to report immediately any infraction of quarantine rules and to notify janitors and superintendents of premises on which the regulations are in effect that they will be held personally responsible for keeping quarantined persons inside.

Several persons who have recovered from infantile paralysis today volunteered to give a quantity of their blood to be used in the preparation of a serum the use of which is said to have proved beneficial to sufferers.

New Jersey state officials have notified officials here that beginning August 15, regulations prohibiting travel of children under 16 years within the state unless they have health certificates would be placed in effect.

A report issued by the health department shows that of 84 persons who have succumbed to the disease since July 1, 635 were under 5 years old.

PROBE RISE IN PRICE OF GASOLINE

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The federal trade commission has completed its final report on the causes of the rise in gasoline prices and probably will send it to congress next week.

Members of the commission today declined to discuss it, but it is understood it will be more specific than the preliminary report sent to congress several months ago, in which the commission set forth facts discovered but made no deductions or recommendations for legislation.

The final report will go into detail as to an apparent lack of sufficient competition between companies producing gasoline. No recommendations are expected and none have been made to the department of justice.

It is understood that the commission will make no recommendations for legislation.

GUNTER NOMINATED FOR GOVERNORSHIP

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
DENVER, August 8.—International politics was discussed in support of President Wilson's Mexican policy at the democratic assembly here today, which unanimously nominated Julius C. Gunter of Denver for governor. He was unopposed. Other state officers will be nominated tomorrow.

Frank R. Crocker, of Washington, D. C., democratic national committeeman, addressing the convention, declared that President Wilson had wisely avoided war with Mexico. Four hundred thousand Mexican soldiers are in Mexico, the speaker asserted, and added that there are more able-bodied Japanese in California than soldiers in the United States regular army.

Discussing Mexican conditions Mr. Crocker declared that both Japan and Germany are planning to overthrow the Monroe doctrine and that war with Mexico would mean war with both of the countries.

Former Governor Alva Adams, of Pueblo, Charles Tew, of Greeley, Samuel De Busk, of Trinidad, and Judge Gunter were other speakers.

The report of the platform committee will be made tomorrow.

the increasing hostility of labor towards capital."

Servility of present day vote-sellers to organized labor, he added, presented a problem to today as did the attitude of politicians 20 years ago to concentrated wealth.

"The congress of the United States trembles every time the labor unions strike," he continued. "Capital, with its brutal, cynical disregard for humanity, started the conflict and labor, in self defense, organized for the struggle."

"We have ceased to legislate in the way we know to be right and have become panders to public opinion, or rather we are making a cowardly surrender to those who vote and demand these things. I predict that in time a law will be passed making it unlawful for anything to enter interstate commerce that is not desired by voters of labor unions."

"The recent day violators of humanity are the counterparts of the old abolitionists. Those fanatics, honest and well meaning as they were, declared the constitution was in league with death and covenant with hell, and their twentieth century successors endorse the statement in acts if not in words."

TAMES MARCHES TOWARD BORDER

[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
EL PASO, Texas, Aug. 8.—About 350 outlaws under Mariano Tames, a former Villa colonel, are enamped to night on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, about thirteen miles below Yuleta, Texas, which is about twelve miles east of here, according to reports to American military headquarters. The reports, which were unconfirmed, said that in an effort to elude the Carranza cavalrymen pursuing him, Tames, who yesterday was reported near Samalayuca, had made his way north and east toward Zaragoza, almost opposite Yuleta, but that he had announced that he did not intend to raid the American frontier.

His band, it was said, had been greatly augmented in the last 24 hours by recruiting among the peons and desertions from the Juarez garrison. Governmental officials in Juarez said, however, that Tames, who left Juarez last week with the announced intention of joining Villa, has less than a dozen men with him.

Ordinance for the Eighth United States field artillery, one of the newly organized regiments, consisting of 3.8 guns, was unloaded here today, and it was announced that a number of six-inch howitzers are in transit for the use of the Fifth field artillery here. These guns will be the largest at El Paso, a number of 4.5 inch guns having been set up in the hills behind the town.

VILLISTS EXECUTED
CHIHUAHUA, Mex., Aug. 8.—General Trevino, military governor today said that five Villistas captured in the Mapimi region and brought to Hermosillo have been condemned and shot in that town.

Court martials are sitting this week in the cases of the bandits captured at San Ignacio, who belonged to the band engaged with the Americans near Fort Hancock and of those brought from Cerro Gordo. The Cerro Gordo men claim, in defense, that they were captured by Villa at Jimenez and impressed by him under threats of death.

Colonel Benito Garcia, formerly of Villa's army, has left Torreon on a special mission for the Carranza government. He is instructed to bring in General Padilla, former chief of general, and head of a band in the Durango hills. Padilla has made overtures toward a surrender.

A number of young society men of Chihuahua City have been sentenced by Acting Governor Trevino to serve as street sweepers for twenty days. They were found guilty of disturbing the night's rest of the household of the father of Governor Trevino, Enriquez, while serenading the town after a dance. Governor Enriquez is in Mexico City.

A fair understanding of methods, a testing out of methods, an exchange of information, an endeavor to ascertain what method is a good one, where waste can be avoided, what can be intelligently used in order to promote the business of a given industry.

"It is in that way that our laboring men will find the greatest opportunity for increase in wages."

The republican party is the great national party. I tell you my friends, the present administration and there is a profound truth in that.

"Now, my friends, we want not only American efficiency in business, efficiency in the organization of business, in the production of the factors of human industry and commerce, we want the American flag unsullied throughout the world."

"Our friends on the other side are very sensitive about Mexico. They say why, that is all past. Isn't that all past? No, the worst of it is that it is all past and that we cannot get at it, but that record is an imperishable record of weakness and vacillation that forfeits, or should forfeit, the confidence of the American people."

The action is not simply as to that act of this act, but it is a record which is so changeable, so full of wrong-headedness, so inconsistent, so destitute of correct purpose, that we cannot view it save with the conclusion that we cannot safely entrust the welfare of the American people, the honor of the American name and the protection of American citizens to an administration which has been guilty of the actions which constitute that record."

"What the record could have done is plain. But it had no right to commit this country to a course of conduct which landed Mexico in anarchy, left our citizens a prey to the ravages of revolution, and made our name a word of contempt in a sister republic."

"Now the correct way was this: If the administration had the courage to say to America, 'We will recognize you as you can perform your international obligations, if you have got a real government that can discharge its duties, we will recognize you. Unless you are satisfied that you have, but there is one thing that you and every one else must understand, and that is this, American life and the property of American citizens in Mexico must be protected, and we will see to it.'"

"That was the straight and correct policy. That was the one thing that administration ought to have done, and the one thing that it did not do."

"When men who had been deserted by their government when our warships left San Pedro and allowed British and German warships to renew our own people—think of it when he had run away—when one of the cabinet officers was asked about it, what do you suppose he said? He replied: 'You went down there to make money, didn't you?'"

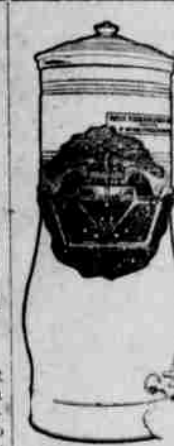

"The idea of any American, the representative of this government, daring to hold office in this country and being traitorous to that respect due our government; the protection of the lives of its citizens."

"We cannot let the American spirit fall so low that lapped in the luxury occasioned by a foreign war we shall see American lives sacrificed without a determination to prevent it and make the American name honored and respected wherever our flag flies. The trouble with this administration is this: I don't think it has ever had a policy in Mexico worthy of the name."
